Close of the Big Rochester Fair and the Results

Rochester Sept. 29—Today was the closing day of the thirty-sixth annual Rochester fair under the direction of the Rochester Agricultural and Mechanical association, but the rainy weather, midway, decreased the attendance. The midway and the eating tents did a good business. Today was firemen's day at the fair when the annual firemen's muster took place and was run off in the usual manner. The visiting firemen were well entertained at the central fire station.

There was a large number of people on the street to witness the parade, which took place at 12:30 o'clock. The line of march was made up as follows: Marshal, Harry Chalmers; Hanson American band; Charles E. Randall and three assistants; Rochester firemen, 70 men; Rochester fire machines; Manchester Drum corps; T. W. Lane company of Manchester with tub; Berwick Drum corps, 12 men; Vixen tub and men of Berwick, Me.; Portsmouth band, 20 men; Eureka tub and men of Portsmouth; Protection of Amesbury, Mass., 30 men; Triumph of Berwick

Postmaster General of the United States Carries A Sack of Mail Through the Air In an Aeroplane.

The international aviation meet at Nassau boulevard, Long Island, was distinguished by the actual carrying of a sack of mail by Postmaster General Frank H. Hitchcock through the air in an aeroplane. This was the first time in the history of this country that mail has actually been carried by the postmaster general. Mr. Hitchcock, carrying a sack of mail weighing ten pounds, went up with Captain Beck, U. S. A., and delivered the packet at a post-office station several miles distant.

Theatrical Topics

That the famous Irish Players at the Plymouth Theatre, Boston, have scored a phenomenal success is evidenced at every performance when the seating capacity of this beautiful playhouse is severely tested. Not only has the theatre going public raved over the remarkable genius displayed by this wonderfully clever organization but the conservative critics of the entire Boston press, unanimously declared them to be the one great dramatic novelty of the decade.

For example, the Boston Post said: "The Irish Players scored a tremendous success, when the final curtain descended the wonderfully realistic climax of 'Birthright,' the audience were carried away by their enthusiasm for the artistic simplicity of the Irish Players and applauded for more than five minutes." The Boston Herald said: "These plays were acted with a simplicity, a regard for the effect of the ensemble and a desire to serve the dramatist that are rarely found on the stage today; these actors remind one of the best traditions of the French school." The Boston American said: "The genius of true acting was seen last night at the Plymouth Theatre when the Irish Players thrilled a great audience by their splendid production of three of their plays; it was the inaugural presentation in America of a stage style which in many of its features, marks a new departure in domestic drama."

The Boston Globe said: "The acting of the Irish Players is as unconventional as their plays. Simplicity and naturalness is what they strive for and what they accomplish. They ignore all stage traditions with the results that are amazingly effective and impressive." The Boston Journal said: "It was a night of surprise of new views of the dramatic world, of strange environments, of novel, pungent phrases and, as a rule strikingly faithful interpretations; in a word, of unprecedented theatrical pleasures."

All the other papers were in accordance with the above.

The engagement of the Irish Players of the great art of acting would do well to pay the Plymouth Theatre a visit before the engagement ends. The management of the Plymouth Theatre, which by the way is one of the most perfect theatres in Boston, make a special feature of caring for mail orders.

NOTHING NEW UNDER THE SUN.

Many people claim there is nothing new under the sun but this statement has been proven untrue in the last year. The French people as a race are, and have been the leaders in many of the world's lines of industry and literature; only in the past year has one of their noted writers developed a drama upon new and startling lines, causing the managers in whose theatres it has played to place the "Standing Room Only" sign on the front of their places; it is a masterpiece of modern drama. This wonderful drama of Mother Love written by Alexandre Bisson and entitled "Madame X," will be seen in this city on Friday, Oct. 6, at Portsmouth Theatre, when it will be demonstrated to the auditors the fallacy of that old adage.

RAILROAD NOTES

The new station known as Hilton on the Portsmouth and Dover branch will be opened for service on Monday.

John Murphy, Walter Alvey, and E. H. Thompson of the yard switching crews started today on a trip to New York.

Conductor David Neal who has been running the early morning train from Boston to this city during the summer, will take a run between Boston and Amesbury, beginning Monday.

Gov. Bass and council on Friday directed the attorney general to settle out of court the so-called railroad tax cases by which the Boston & Maine, Maine Central and Grand Trunk railroads sought to secure an abatement of taxes for the years 1909 and 1910. By the terms of the agreement which will be entered into under tonight's vote the Boston & Maine it to be allowed a rebate of $25,000 for each year and the Maine Central $1100 for each year. This amount will be deducted from the taxes payable for 1911 and 1912. The Grand Trunk railroad officials refused to be a party to the settlement and will continue its fight in the courts. The amount involved in the suit is not large.

FIRST FOOTBALL GAME.

The High school football team will play their first game this afternoon at the play grounds at 3:30, with Dover High school.

The local team will contain the greater number of the players of last season and they will line up as follows: Hennessey 1c; Jenkins, 1c; Dame, 1c; L. Leavitt c; C. Brackett, rg; Hett, rt; McCarthy, re; R. Brackett, qb; White 1bb; Crossman, rnb; Bauma 1b.

FOUR SCORE YEARS AND TEN.

Comparatively few attain to the ripe old age of ninety years, and fewer still is the number who retain any semblance of youth at this advanced stage in life's journey.

Today however, we have an instance in our city of a striking example of such conditions that is worthy of a notice in our columns.

This is an anniversary day with one of our most respected citizens, Mr. Daniel Mason, of Middle street, who celebrates the ninetieth birthday, and the congratulations of many friends and acquaintances will be tendered to him on this occasion.

The youthful appearance, and activity of Mr. Mason, as seen upon our streets almost daily, is attention subject of comment, as the weight of years so little asserts itself to the observer. Born in Nye on Sept. 30th, 1821, he at an early age became a resident of this city, where as an active business man he has lived an active advocate of a busy life in his various occupations. Retiring from the long service of constant application to business with heart and hands but a few years since, he is enjoying with remarkable facilities of energy his home life at Middle street. Associated in several secret orders, in all of which he takes great interest, he has lived long enough to be on Odd Fellow for sixty-eight years, and long a member of St. Andrews' Lodge of Masons, De Witt Clinton Commandry Knight Templars and the Scottish Rite, and is also a member of Damon Lodge, Knights of Pythias.

Strange sights and interesting amusements will be found on every hand, and a series of surprises are promised.

Ithaca, N. Y., Sept. 30.—There is no concealing Cornell's optimism over football outlook. Coach Wood was highly pleased with the work of the men in the recent game with Allegheny. Although the contest was a sided, the score being 35 to 0, Reed said he was impressed by Cornell's speed and power. Eddie Butler at quarterback played a brilliant game, pulling off some spectacular quarterback runs and kicking both goals one from placement and one from the field. Experts here predicted that Butler will be the kicking sensation of the season. He seems to be getting all the work in the quarterback position. He is playing a sound game this year and is as good as present as when the season closed last year. He is kicking better than ever and is also a good general.

POWDER PUFFS.
It seems to be almost an inherent quality of man's nature to like fluffy dressed women with all the additions of rouge, powder, puffs and curls. I have heard lots of men curse the modern vanities of women's dress and then straightway marry an almost exact copy of the woman he decried. I don't believe a powder puff ever drove a natural man to leave his wife and home. When a woman fails to keep up her appealing attractiveness to man by the little feminine accessories of dress and first aids to beauty, such as the powder puff, he is more apt to lose his interest in her than by the use of these things.—Mrs. Clarence Burns.

CHARLESTON AND PORTSMOUTH
Secretary of the Navy Meyer has given an interview to the New York Sun, in which he declares that the navy yards which are not named the navy yards which are to be abandoned. We never thought have influenced the development of be had done such a thing. He doesn't know them. The Sun's correspondent states that "the inference" gained from his conversation was that Charleston and Portsmouth would weather the storm. Very likely. We haven't a doubt that the Charleston navy yard will outlive the Hon. George von L. Meyer and many of his successors.—Charleston News.
Portsmouth will certainly be on the map when both Meyer and Charleston are forgotten.

SECRETARY MEYER ON CONDITIONS AT NEW YORK
Secretary of the Navy Meyer has returned from an inspection of the New York Navy yard and the Boston Journal has the following on what he found and what cannot be done:
"No battleships besides the New York will be constructed in navy yards unless there is a decided change in the policy of the navy department."
"Secretary Meyer, fresh from an inspection of the New York yard, said today there was no room in that yard for laying down another ship, nor could a keel be placed in any other yard unless congress appropriated at least $200,000 to put the yard in condition for such a large piece of work."
"The statement was in reference to the declaration by a prominent shipbuilding concern, that no private concerns would take another contract for ship construction under the terms of the existing eight-hour law, which, given me pleasure to confirm. If taken literally, would mean that hereafter the government must build its own ships or amend the law."
"Secretary Meyer suggested, however, that after the shipbuilders had considered the situation they might find it difficult to resist the temptation to undertake the construction of battleships, which would insure the employment of a large number take no other."

of workmen for several years." If Mr. Meyer will take the trouble to go will find room at the Portsmouth navy yard to build and launch a half dozen Dreadnaughts. Why not let the Navy Department admit the general conditions at New York, and stop the waste of millions there. Transfer the equipment here where 10,000 workmen could be employed—away from the turmoil of a crowded metropolis where they could breathe God's fine air and have homes where their families could live contented. Some day the department will do this very same thing.

BIRD'S EYE VIEWS
Portsmouth is the busiest city in the state and it will continue to be. The big Colonial Paper plant is going to become a reality, all reports to the contrary, notwithstanding.
When the workmen come around to their senses they will bury the political fakirs that are now destroying the business of the country.
The war between America and Japan will come like a flash, as did the war between Italy and Turkey.
Hammering the public service corporations for political purposes is proving costly business for the people. The life of the so-called insurance is now ready for the final obsequies.

In all seriousness that report of Expert Hoyt so war as it added anything to improving our state roads was a joke. Will Governor Bass tell a long suffering public why he doesn't give our New Hampshire citizens a chance?

AMONG OUR EXCHANGES
Our Colleges
It is gratifying to receive news from Hanover and Durham that the entering classes at Dartmouth and New Hampshire colleges have again broken all records numerically; this in spite of the fact that some Dartmouth alumni regret the development of their alma mater to a point where it can no longer be affectionately referred to as a "small college."
This regret must be alleviated in some measure by the very evident fact that Dartmouth's scholarship standards are higher now, despite its remarkable growth, than in the days when its students totalled but a few hundred. It is harder to get into Dartmouth than it used to be and harder to stay there, largely, probably, because the college has attained a point in growth beyond which those directing its affairs do not particularly desire that it shall go.
Perhaps the same considerations of an athletic policy which has given Dartmouth high rank among those colleges which conduct their athletic affairs honestly and do not wink at scholarship and other deficiencies in star athletes. The disqualification of a whole baseball team, one of the best in the colleges, a few years ago was one of the most notable incidents in recent athletic history of an educational institution disciplining students who had failed to live up to the letter and spirit of the rules governing them.

ACKNOWLEDGE IT
Portsmouth Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It
After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Portsmouth given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which cured years ago which has kept the kidneys in good health since, can be relied upon to perform the same work in other cases. Read this:
Thomas Entwistle, 47 Cabot St., Portsmouth, N. H., says: "I was troubled for a long time by kidney complaint. Reading of Doan's Kidney Pills I decided to give them a trial and procured a supply at Philbrick's Pharmacy. They cured me and I have since recommended them to my friends and acquaintances." (Statement given May 16, 1905.)
RE-ENDORSEMENT
When Mr. Entwistle was interviewed on June 26, 1911, he said: "It of the existing eight-hour law, which, given me pleasure to confirm. If taken literally, would mean that hereafter the government must build its own ships or amend the law."
"Secretary Meyer suggested, however, that after the shipbuilders had considered the situation they might find it difficult to resist the temptation to undertake the construction of battleships, which would insure the employment of a large number take no other."

FIFTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Gleanings From Files of Portsmouth Chronicle

We trust that before another week has passed, arrangements will be fully completed for holding a grand Union Meeting in this city. The present seems a very favorable time for holding such a meeting and we feel assured that the result would be decidedly beneficial. America calls upon each one of her true and loyal sons for aid, and earnest, patriotic words may advance her interests where arms need not be used. In this day of our nation's great trial no instrumentality should be neglected, which can change an opponent or a lukewarm friend into an earnest and devoted supporter of the Government.

The reported letting out of contracts for building iron-clad steamers for the naval service, is premature.

New Hampshire college, is, of course, much smaller than Dartmouth and its growth has been less spectacular, but its progress has been steady and rapid and especially significant is the fact that more students every year are coming to it from other states. It is constantly winning recognition for itself in all the branches of technical instruction maintained there and its graduates are making good wherever they go. Indeed, so noteworthy has been their success of late that "finding a job" is not the problem today for a graduate of New Hampshire that it used to be.

The Granite State has reason for the confident belief that its two colleges are among the best in the fields they occupy, for other states have recognized it as a fact.—Concord Monitor.

A Baseball Championship.
As has seemed probable for several weeks the Philadelphia Athletics have again won the American League championship, Detroit being edged out of the running. This is just what happened last year, except that the contest then was closer while this year the Athletics have a good margin, notwithstanding a poor start.
The New Yorks have such a long lead in the National league that they are generally conceded as coming victors in the older organization. This means that the Athletics, who a year ago won the world's championship from the Chicago Nationals, this season will contest with New York. New York has better base runners and has a first-class team in every respect, while the Athletics are superior batsmen. A royal battle for the highest honors is in store, with the best baseball players in the country contesting every point.—Boston Globe.

Enforcing New York's Anti-Gun Law
The first man to be formally punished under the Sullivan law of New York making it a felony to carry concealed weapons, or even have them in one's possession, is an Italian resident of New Jersey who was passing through the big city on his way to engage in work in Connecticut. This may seem like going away from home for an illustration of the serious meaning of the new statute. Out of five million people, in which Black Hand desperadoes and reckless gamblers of all kinds are numerous, it would seem as though the detective might have found a subject within their permanent jurisdiction with which to make an example with which to make an example to other violators of the new law.
The statute has been in force since the first of the month. It has been wisely commented upon and there have been a number of farcical arrests on charges of its violation, some of them so absurd as to excite suspicion that an attempt was being made to bring the law into ridicule, but a year at Sing Sing, which is the penalty imposed upon the first one to be sentenced, is sufficiently serious to be a warning to others that a defiance of this social safe guard is likely to have unpleasant consequences. The judge is George Sessions, who upheld the statute in this instance, deserves commendation for demonstrating that the law means something. Undoubtedly the man, an ignorant foreigner, did not realize that he was violating the laws, and the only justification for the sentence is that it may do more to discourage men of his class from continuing this dangerous practice than could

The Observer

At the organization meeting of the Men's Social club of the First Free Baptist church, Monday night, the Rev. David Fraiser, pastor of the South Main Street Congregational church on the West Side says: "The Union was one of the speakers who told a few good stories."
A West Side man sometime ago had a death in his family. He went to his clothes to get some rope to wear on his coat sleeve. He asked the clerk how wide a band would be proper for him to wear.
"Well, that depends," said the clerk. "It is very close relative that you have lost, it would be proper to wear a wide band. But if it is a distant relative, a narrow band would be more appropriate."
"Gimme a shoveling then," ordered the mourner. "My mother-in-law is dead."

Another story was that a party of people were discussing the future life and the pleasures and pains to be expected above and below after leaving this sphere. One of the men in the party was conspicuous by his silence and another turned to him and said:
"Mr. Smith, why don't you say something. Haven't you any opinion?"
"Friends, I cannot express an opinion," said the non-committal man. "I have friends in both places."

Some people appear to take delight in crying down every new enterprise that is started in Portsmouth or by predicting that this or that industry will be a failure. They also about that business is going to the bow wows. The fact is Portsmouth is the libellest city in the state—and it will continue to boom and prosper. Get on to the band wagon and boost or take the chance of being run over.

The local Veteran brethren did themselves proud at Amesbury and they demonstrated what they could do with their organization in condition and every man on his job and their machine in condition to win.
The Eureka gave a good account of herself and would have done the same at Rochester, but for a strong wind. When the Eureka played the wind was at its highest and the stream was knocked down before it had half spent its force.

Principal E. C. Perry of the Plymouth Business College informs the Herald that the attendance at the fall opening this year, is the largest in the history of the local school. The Plymouth College is a credit to Portsmouth and it has done a great deal for the young boys and girls in this section. Every graduate from the school has immediately found employment and has been greatly benefited. Principal Perry to succeed in his work where others fail.

NEWINGTON

The farmers are busy gathering their corn and filling their silos. This frequent rains interfere with their work, but they are much needed for in spite of the heavy down falls of rain the ponds do not fill wells that it is not fit for use.
Several of our citizens attended Rochester fair on Wednesday and Thursday and all report an enjoyable time.
During the electrical showers on Tuesday afternoon Mr. Thomas Newick had two valuable cows killed by the lightning.
Miss Ida Nutter, matron of the Franklin, Mass., hospital spent a day recently with her sister, Mrs. James Coleman.
Miss Tina Bennett who has been a guest of her aunt Mrs. William Furber, has returned.
Mrs. Richard Goss and wife of Rye passed a day last week with Mr. Albert Pickering and sister.
Mrs. Albert Nutter has closed up her summer cottage on Great Bay and returned to her home in Chelsea, Mass.
Mrs. John Hill, who has passed the summer with Miss Mary L. Pickering has now returned to her home in Providence, Rhode Island.

Interest of Canada that had marked an administration of fifteen years; and he was listened to with close attention and great respect. The claims of the other Liberal speakers was that the question of reciprocity was secondary to the one great object of the Conservatives whose slogan was "Anything to defeat Laurier" or something to that effect.
On the other hand the practical questions of financial disaster and the inquiry that might occur to the farmers, traders and manufacturers of Canada were paraded in such a manner as to appeal to any one who could not see the subject in all its bearings and who formed a part of the masses that followed rather blindly the acknowledged leaders. It was rather a question of who should win than of the results to be obtained. This appeal to the common people and its effect—rather astonishing to us all; and the result is the old political position so generally sought in our own elections—the "outs" are in and the "ins" are out.
We must acknowledge the wisdom displayed by some whom we learned to greatly esteem among our Canadian friends in taking part with the Conservatives; and the fact that they are intelligent, honest and upright citizens indicates that they were conscientiously opposed to reciprocity, and one naturally hesitates in deciding against a policy that they sustain by their voice and vote; but nevertheless there is a very general feeling both in Canada and in the United States that the result of the election throws aside the one opportunity that may not for a long time come again to give a mutual benefit to both countries.
The question of annexation was not at all involved, though it was held up by the Conservatives as a big-bear that threatens to follow reciprocity in the near or distant future. To this the Canadians are almost universally opposed.

GROOTE WINKEL
"Going to Groote Winkel?" is the query that one meets on every hand, and the answer in many cases is "I don't know where I am going but I am on my way." Perhaps that aptly expresses the interest and uncertainty as to just what Groote Winkel is. It looks as though the Mercedes Acrole 652 F. O. E. had played a trump card when they secured it for their great time, which opens at Freemans hall for four nights, commencing Tuesday night, Oct. 10.
Those who are on the inside say that nothing equalling it has ever been seen here, and it will astonish and delight everybody. Groote Winkel is Dutch, so it is apparent that there is to be a flavor of old Holland to it, and that, being the case, the possibilities are interesting to speculate upon.

KITTERY LETTER

Kittery, Sept. 30.

In spite of the stormy and disagreeable weather of Friday evening, the chafing social given by the members of the Epworth League, at the Second Methodist church, proved a delightful affair to all those who attended. The first part of the evening was spent in sociability, while the following program was rendered most delightfully.

Songs by Male chorus, Messrs. Sprague, Wood, Philbrick and Jones.
Vocal Solo, Miss Hattie Langton.

Following the program the chafing dish part of the program was in order, and numerous delicacies were served by Mrs. Victor Hulteen, Mrs. J. Edwin Paul, Mrs. Charles Pinkham, Mrs. Frank Robbins, Mrs. Frank Robinson and Miss Carrie Paul. Canny was sold during the evening, the table being in charge of Miss Susie Paul.

CASCARETS WORK WHILE YOU SLEEP

Salts, Calomel and Cathartic Pills are Violent They Act on Bowels as Pepper Acts in Nostrils

Take a Cascaret tonight and thoroughly cleanse your Liver, Stomach and Bowels, and you will surely feel great by morning. You men and women who have headache, coated tongue, can't sleep, are bilious, nervous and upset, bothered with a sick, gassy, disordered stomach, or have backache and feel all worn out.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passage every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the decomposed waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels.

Remember a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. A 10 cent box from your druggist means a clear box from your druggist means a clear head and cheerfulness for months. Don't forget the children.

"The Grand Master's Treasure," by Gertrude W. Sargent, Past President Rebekah Assembly, I. O. O. F., of Maine, is the title of a new book which should prove most interesting to all members of the Odd Fellow fraternity, as the story deals with the underlying principles of that great organization, and the author approaches her subject with an ample knowledge of what it implies, as she has been prominently identified with the Rebekah branch of the order. She has also generously donated ten per cent of the net proceeds of the sale of the book to the Maine Odd Fellows' and Orphans' Home Fund.

ITALY HAS DECLARED WAR ON TURKEY

Italian Ships Land Troops at Tripoli ---May Involve Other Countries.

Rome, Sept. 29.—It is officially announced here that Italy and Turkey are in a state of war, beginning at 2.30 on the afternoon of Friday, Sept. 29th.

The reason is given, that Turkey has failed to meet the demands contained in the Italian ultimatum.

The minister of marine is believed to have sent wireless orders to the Italian fleet off Tripoli to act immediately.

This action followed a meeting of the cabinet at 11 a. m., at which it was decided to proceed with the measures previously determined upon.

Italy will provide for the safety of Italians and all other foreigners in Tripoli and Cyrene, using to this end all means at her disposal. The blockade of the entire coast of Tripoli and Cyrenaica will be undertaken immediately, and a notification of this act will be sent to all neutral powers.

Ultimatum Expired at 2.30 p. m.

The official announcement that Italy has declared war on Turkey was made late this afternoon. It declared that the two countries were in a state of war beginning at 2.30 p. m., the hour at which the Italian ultimatum to Turkey expired. It followed a session of the cabinet at which the Turkish reply was considered and found unsatisfactory.

Though every indication pointed to this action by the royal government, there was always a possibility that the good offices of the other governments would be successful in averting hostilities, and when the final decision of the cabinet was announced the excitement throughout the city was intense.

Through the earlier hours of the day the papers had issued special editions announcing that the Italian fleet was moving in plain sight of the coast of Tripoli, and intimating that war might be declared at any moment.

The minister of foreign affairs, Signor di San Giuliano, received the Turkish reply from the Turkish ambassador this morning and immediately went into conference with his associates in the ministry. It is understood that the Ottoman government completely conceded Italy's economic claims in Tripoli, but evaded a direct answer demanded by this government, which had set forth in its ultimatum that Turkey must say that she would not resist the proposed occupation of Tripoli and Cyrene.

Instead the porte sent a conciliatory note suggesting further delay. It was known that at the same time Turkey transmitted a note to the powers in which it is assumed that she represented herself as the injured party, and by interference at least sought their intervention.

The royal government decided to stand absolutely by the ultimatum of yesterday, and in the absence of the reply called for to declare Italy and Turkey in a state of war, from the hour that the ultimatum of 24 hours expired.

Hopes Italy Will Desist.

Constantinople, Sept. 29.—The Turkish reply to the Italian ultimatum demanding assurances that there will be no resistance to the Italian military occupation of Tripoli and Cyrene was communicated to the Italian charge, Sig. di Martino, at 6.30 this morning.

The message was couched in friendly terms and expressed surprise at the action of Italy in view of the cordial relations existing between the two countries. It pointed out that Italian interests in Tripoli had not been threatened and expressed the hope that Italy would desist from her contemplated measures. Assurance was given of Turkey's desire for a settlement of the matters pending between the two governments.

The reply also stated that Italian subjects in Ottoman territory were exposed to no danger, as the authorities afforded them protection, and added that the Turkish military measures had been suspended during the period of the negotiations for a settlement of differences.

The reply was determined upon at a cabinet council, which continued at the palace from late yesterday until early today.

Upon receiving the communication the Italian charge immediately telegraphed to Rome. The impression in the diplomatic corps is that the note will not be satisfactory to Italy.

The Turkish squadron has left Beirut and is returning to Constantinople. Every precaution has been taken to preserve order in the capital and throughout the provinces.

Public indignation has been intense since the Italian demands were made known yesterday. The Italian charge presented the ultimatum at the usual weekly reception to the foreign representatives at the foreign office.

Immediately afterwards the grand vizier proceeded to the palace where the ministers were assembled in a special council meeting. Their deliberations were carefully guarded, and though conflicting rumors as to the action decided upon were afloat, nothing definite was made known until this morning, when it was stated that the government had sent a conciliatory reply to Italy.

In diplomatic quarters doubt was expressed that the reply would delay the purpose of Italy, as the ultimatum made it plain that the only satisfactory answer would be Turkey's acquiescence in Italy's plans to occupy Tripoli and Cyrene.

THE STORY OF A DUCK.

A Pathetic Tale of the Duck and Cat That Got Mixed.

A well known ball player of the A. C. championship ball team, is mourning the loss of a duck. Not an ordinary duck, but a high bred class bird that might have taken a prize at the Rochester Fair, in a Houdini act.

Well George had the duck given to him on Friday and he placed him in a bag and started to take him home. On the way he called at a Congress street store, and left the bag near the safe, (he wanted to put it inside but there was no room) so he was contented with leaving it while he made a few errands, where a duck wouldn't be good company.

On his return as a reward for the cashier keeping a watchful eye on the bag, he said he would let her gaze on this wonderful duck. George opened the bag with a great deal of pride and reached for the duck, but pulled his hand out in quick time, and following his hand came a very indignant cat.

George was hostile right off and allowed that the substitution had been made at a store down the street, and he started with fire in his eye. There was a complete denial at the other place and finally George went home with the empty bag.

The disappearance of the duck was a great joke, and George, another George, who helps run the store where the Houdini act took place, went across the street to tell Bill. He described all the harrowing details and Bill was very much amused until George gave a little to minute description of the cat and then Bill got sore. It was his cat that had been used for the substitute and he had been so frightened he had not come home. Now, Bill wants to know where his cat is and George, he of the duck, is looking for his bird.

P. S.—The duck passed the night in a drawer of shoes, and there will be a bargain sale of these shoes to-day.

Soda crackers are extremely sensitive to moisture.

Before the advent of Uneeda Biscuit the only persons who ever tasted fresh, crisp soda crackers were the people in the bakeries.

Imagine their trip from bakery to your table; exposed to air and moisture—kept in grocers' boxes and finally in a paper bag on the shelf in your pantry. Could they be the same as they were the day they were baked?

Now that we have Uneeda Biscuit—we have perfectly baked soda crackers—perfectly kept.

No moisture can reach them—no contaminating influences can affect their flavor—their goodness is imprisoned only to be liberated by you for you when you open the package.

Always in the moisture proof package. Never sold in bulk. 5 cents a package.

Hawaiian Music.

It is not an unusual thing for the writer of a book or a play to visit the country in which he desires to locate the plot of his work, for two song writers to do so in order to be able to write a song true to nature is going some. For this reason Percy Wenrich and Edward Madden, the writers of "Rainbow" and "Silver Bell," published by Jerome H. Remick and company, spent two weeks in Honolulu getting the atmosphere and color for their new Hawaiian song, "My Hula Hula Love." That they will be amply repaid for the time, trouble and expense incurred is already assured, for the song at once became a phenomenal success in New York, Chicago and Boston, where it has been introduced by some of the big vaudeville stars. The music wonderfully sweet and catchy, and Mr. Wenrich claims that it is similar in some of its measures to Hawaiian music. Since Hawaii has become one of the possessions of the United States, very little of its music has been heard here, but Messrs. Madden and Wenrich have made a collection of the music and legends of that wonderful country and intend to embody it in a new comic opera shortly to be produced in New York by a syndicate. The chorus of "My Hula Hula Love" embodies a few words of language of the Hawaiians, which adds to its novelty and attractiveness.

Chorus
Hula, or Hamati Hula, smile on your own Zinga Zula.
Moon shines above, sweet jungle dove:
For you my love song is ringing, for you my holo is swinging.
Come be my Hula, Hula love.

New, R. I., Sept. 29.—In smoke test today the torpedo boat destroyer Ammen, commanded by Lieut. J. K. Taussig, ran for four hours, much of the time at full speed, with smoke visible but eleven minutes. The destroyers Trippe and Walke, which participate in the test, showed smoke for a much greater period.

The three destroyers were out for their annual test and although weather conditions were very unfavorable there being a forty gale and the seas running high, all made good showings in the two-hour full speed test all three exceed contract speed, and this with the waves washing over them and the going unusually bad.

The contract speed of the boats was 29 1/2 knots. The Trippe made 31 2-10, the Ammen 30 6-10, and the Walke 29 9-10 today. The Trippe was under command of Lieut. Frank Berrian, and the Walke of Lieut. Charles T. Train.

AUTO SMASHES INTO POLE

Machine with Party of Mystery Crashes into Telegraph

Party Hires Machine and is Whizzed To Boston

A large red automobile with its front axle hood lamps and wheels twisted and smashed into all shapes, tells the story of a collision on the Dover road. The machine while going at a rapid speed crashed into a telegraph pole, throwing all hands but without injuring them. The owner immediately phoned Beacham for a machine and taking their license number from the wrecked car came to this city and arranged to have the wrecked machine, named here by Carl Bros. They then had a lunch and whizzed away to Boston in Beacham's car. All their moves were mysterious and not a person in the city appears to know who they were. Carl was notified that would send him shipping directions later. Some idea of the impact between the machine and telegraph pole will be gathered when it is known that the pole was cut down in the impact.
